CORAM: SMT. ROSHAN DALVI,J.
DATED: 9TH JANUARY, 2007

P.C.

1. The original claimant No.1 expired. His representative has been brought on record. He claims to obtain Letters of Administration to the estate of one Jamshed J.J.Cursetji who is stated to be the original owner of the acquired land. In another Reference being LAR No.6 of 1988 he has been directed to make his reference after the Letters of Administration are obtained. That is with regard to the land acquired in this reference also. Hence, the same directions are required to be passed in this reference also.

2. The original claimant no.2 is the mother of the original claimant no.1. The original claimant no.2 has also expired. Though the claimant no.2 has been brought on record as her heir and the LAR has been amended to that extent she is not represented today. It is not known whether the claimant No.2, who has now been brought on record has been served the papers in this LAR.

3. Nevertheless for obtaining the Letters of Administration to the estate of Jamshed J.J.Cursetji, the claimant no.1 would be required to be given notice to the claimant no.2. Therefore, she would be represented in the proceedings for grant of the letters of administration. Claimant no.2 shall also be entitled to file a fresh reference after the Letters of Administration are obtained to the Estate of Jamshed J.J. Cursetji. This LAR is disposed of accordingly.
